

National CineMedia (NCM) Names Sarah Kinnick Hilty Senior Vice President & General Counsel

January 16, 2018

CENTENNIAL, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 16, 2018-- National CineMedia (NCM), America's Movie Network, has named Sarah Kinnick Hilty to the role of Senior Vice President & General Counsel. She will join the company effective February 12, 2018.

An attorney with more than 20 years of experience covering a wide range of business and legal matters, Hilty joins NCM from CH2M HILL Companies, Ltd. in Denver, where she had served as Deputy General Counsel, Corporate, since 2006. While at CH2M, she led a team that was responsible globally for legal corporate enterprise matters including mergers, acquisitions, and divestitures; securities compliance; treasury and finance activities, real estate, and board and subsidiary governance. Collaborating closely with the Board of Directors and senior executive leadership, Hilty also managed the legal closing process for the 2017 sale of CH2M to Jacobs Engineering Group Inc. (NYSE:JEC).

Hilty began her career at Hogan & Hartson, LLP in Denver as an associate in the Business and Finance Group in 1996, and became a partner in 2004. While at Hogan & Hartson, she focused on mergers and acquisitions, strategic joint ventures, corporate finance, and various other corporate matters for a broad array of clients, including many in the entertainment industry.

"Sarah is a great fit for NCM at this point in our company's history, as we evolve into being not just the leader in cinema advertising, but a truly progressive media company," said Andy England, CEO of National CineMedia (NCM). "She has a great track record of negotiating and managing large, complex transactions and projects, and has a talent for quickly identifying the root cause of a wide variety of legal issues to continue to move business forward. I am happy to have her join us as an integral part of our company and our senior leadership team."

Hilty holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Colorado Boulder and a Juris Doctorate from Stanford Law School.
